urs was held last night at 163 Bowery, John Windt in the was was held last night at 163 Bowery, John Windt in the shair, and Benjamin Frice officiating as secretary. John Dummerford meved that a committee be appointed to farant resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting with reference to the death of George H. Evans, of Eranville, New Jersey, which was carried, when, after some other business, the meeting adjourned. Mc. Evans was the originator of the Land Referra agitation; and so leveted was he to the principles he avowed, that he ment a handsome competency in their agitation. He was editor of two workingmen's journals, known as the Young America and The Workingman's Advocate. Be was also author of several pumphlets, that created quite a sensation when published. The Land Reformers metand to renew their agitation for the freedom of the public lands.

THE STREETS TO BE CLEANED .- The appropriation of $15 .-0 by the Common Council is, it seems, about to be used ose, though the using up of an appropriat always mean that any good has been done men and Germans at the end of them; and it is said that here were some hopes of the discovery of a parement at a size hour leat night, though it must be confessed the news seems apperyphal. With an annworted energy, hat seems to good to last, the authorities kept the laborers employed up to near miduight yesterday, and the field was soon visible in the improved appearance of keedway. The huge hills of ice and snow that had assumulated during the winter were shorn of their peaks, and did something towards filling up the chasms by thich they were surrounded. The weather was mild, and it thawed during the day. There was a possibility of rain towards midnight. Would that it would rain copiumly for about ten hours! That would be worth more to ure citizens than all the appropriations of the Common founcil and the labors of pickage and shovel.

CLAY CLUB BALL .- The anniversary of the treaty of with Ward Henry Clay Club at the Appollo Rooms on the Friday evening.
